

Field Trip to the UCLA football game drawing will be held on Friday.

If you would like to attend with your child and drive to the event you too will be placed in the drawing. Please check the box below if you want to drive to the game. We will select up to 10 families that would like to take their families to the game.

All students that want to ride the bus will need the form filled out and signed by their parent. If you want to volunteer for the bus ride trip you must be board approved. The official permission slip will follow after the drawing.
